

THE ELECTION

Election and Motor Show in Conflict

Labor Leaders Cite Auto Show at London as an Example

ELECTRIC INDUSTRY ALSO TO THE FORE

David Lloyd George Takes Strong Exceptions to the Russian Loan

LONDON, Oct. 20.—(Canadian Press Cable).—The election campaign in Great Britain has come simultaneously with the holding of the great annual motor trade show at London. Labor leaders are pointing scornfully to the fact that the Conservative newspapers are describing trade as being brisk at the show, whereas only recently those same journals published statements that the British motor industry was doomed to extinction through the repeal of the McKenna duties.

David Lloyd George has already advocated considerable extension of the British electrical industry, while Mr. Shaw, the minister of labor, on his part has made promise that if Labor is returned in the coming election he will bring into operation a big electrical system which will make it possible for the small towns and villages of the country to possess electric light and power for the purpose of manufacturing, etc., at reasonable prices.

This is intended, he declares, not merely for alleviation of the unemployment situation, but for the enrichment of the country as a whole. Lloyd George, speaking today in the Shrewsbury division of the Labor party, took the opportunity to take issue with the Conservative position, and declared that the Labor party was not in favor of the Russian loan, "in order to help a loan to help disruption of the Russian revolution."

Headquarters declare that in every case where the Liberal candidate has been withdrawn from the contest the withdrawal has been with local consent and the voters are left to decide whether it is a greater inconsistency to vote against the Conservative.

FIND ERROR IN ELECTION ACT

W. J. Jackman, Returning Officer, Issues New Proclamation to Correct Mistake

W. J. Jackman, the returning officer for the Edmonton bye-election, has issued the following statement regarding the hours during which it will be possible to vote:

Due to an error in the Alberta Election Act, the hours of polling in the Edmonton bye-election on October 27 were erroneously stated in my proclamation. The correct hours are from nine o'clock until seven o'clock in the morning in the city and from nine o'clock until six o'clock in the country.

A supplementary proclamation correcting the mistake has been issued, and it is hereby noted in all the polling subdivisions, and in all the polling stations, that the hours of polling are from nine o'clock until seven o'clock in the morning in the city and from nine o'clock until six o'clock in the country.

The election will not be situated by the mistake that has taken place.

PROHIBITION AGENT PURCHASES LIQUOR

TORONTO, Oct. 20.—(Non-Resistant).—A prohibition agent, who had been appointed to the office of the prohibition committee, recently visited the city and was seen to purchase a quantity of liquor for the purpose of testing the law.

Mrs. Kopoun Will Do The Talking Three Days Per Week; No Comeback

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week Mrs. Rose Kopoun will do all the talking in the Kopoun household, and there will be no back talk from her husband, George Kopoun. Superior Judge Harry Lewis so ruled today after hearing evidence in Mrs. Kopoun's suit for separation maintenance. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the husband can talk, and on Sunday the couple are not to argue, Judge Lewis ordered.

He told them to try the schedule and see if they could not patch up their differences after both said "arguing" was the cause of their troubles.

DRUMMELLER IS VERY JOYFUL

All the Mines Will Be in Full Swing This Morning and Merchants Are Delighted

MANY OPENED MONDAY

(Special to The Bulletin).—DETHLEFSEN, Oct. 20.—Monday morning saw a very bright day in the coal mines of the district. The coal mines were in full swing this morning and the merchants were delighted. Many of the mines had been closed for some time, but they are now open and the coal is being mined. The only grievances left are purely of local character, says Conroy.

W. T. Henry Makes Vigorous Reply to Attacks of Conservative Candidate

EWING AGAIN REFERS TO TELEPHONE POLES

Liberal Candidate Compares His Platform With That of Labor, Plank for Plank

The Rose Theatre, crowded to its limit, was the venue of a large political gathering last night at which the four candidates seeking election to the House of Commons were present.

The Liberal candidate, W. T. Henry, made a vigorous reply to the attacks of the Conservative candidate, Mr. Ewing.

Mr. Ewing, in his speech, referred to the telephone poles and the Liberal candidate, Mr. Henry, replied that the Liberal candidate was not in favor of the telephone poles.

Mr. Henry then compared his platform with that of the Labor party, plank for plank.

He said that the Liberal candidate was not in favor of the telephone poles, but was in favor of the Labor party's platform.

MAN WAS POOR DUMB BRUTE AND WOMAN DID THINKING

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The cave man was a poor dumb brute who let his mate—his wife—do his thinking for him.

This was the conviction expressed today by Mrs. George C. McDurdy, anthropologist and explorer, as she and her husband, Professor of prehistoric research at Peabody Museum, Yale University, returned on the steamship Orizaba after a summer's work abroad.

"From my investigations in 14 European museums and in many excavations, I don't very much that the cave man was the boss, after all," Mrs. McDurdy declared. "Women evidently displayed the earliest signs of intelligence. It was natural that they should, for, theirs was the drudgery of the camp and they had more time to think."

"Men research workers hold that the beautiful prehistoric paintings and drawings were the work of cave men. I'm convinced that the best of them were done by the women."

"I believe, furthermore, that women occupied a position of greater importance in the life of the family and tribe than they do today. In prehistoric days, motherhood was venerated as the salvation of the race. Today it is a secondary matter."

DIET IS DISSOLVED BY PRESIDENT EBERT

Marx-Stresemann Ministry Will Continue In Office Until The Newly Elected Reichstag Produces a Successor—Little Change Is Expected

BERLIN, Oct. 20.—The Reichstag was dissolved by President Ebert this evening. After a fitful effort to construct a bourgeois house which would definitely control a safe majority in the Reichstag, Chancellor Marx appealed to President Ebert for a decree of dissolution and writs for new elections.

The refusal by the Democrats to participate in a ministry which extended only in the direction of the Nationalists, proved the deciding factor in the chancellor's decision to abandon his negotiations, especially as his own party also was in open revolt against any pact which would drive the Socialists into opposition.

As was the case in the spring campaign, the Dawes report will again be the outstanding issue in the coming elections.

The present situation does not solve itself into a cabinet crisis and it is altogether the result of the existing party lineup in the Reichstag, which precludes the formation of a workable majority government.

The Marx-Stresemann ministry will continue in office until the newly elected Reichstag produces its successor. Just what the new party lineup will be is wholly a matter of conjecture and there are sufficient political prophecies at hand to predict that the new shuffle of mandates will yield only a slight alteration in the strength of the respective parties.

TO HEAR MORE IN DAVIS CASE

Five Murderers of Bank Car Chauffeur Must Be Hanged—One May Be Saved

OTTAWA, Oct. 20.—(By Canadian Press)—After having dismissed the application of Tony Frank, Gambino, Vincent, Valentino and Morel, convicted of the hold-up of the Bank of Montreal car, the Supreme Court, in its decision on the appeal of the bank's chauffeur, for writs of habeas corpus, supreme court this evening reserved judgment on the writs of habeas corpus on behalf of Leo Davis, sentenced to death with the other five criminals.

At the morning and the night sessions of the court, the case was occupied with the Davis appeal. F. N. Lavery, Q.C., asked the court to grant a new trial with Oscar Guinness, also appearing for Davis, declared that he had been deceived from proving misstatements of justice in the Quebec court of appeal because of the exclusion of certain affidavits which he wished to file.

For the crown H. L. Calder, Q.C., said that the case against Davis was not a case of conspiracy but a case of conspiracy and that the conspiracy was a conspiracy to rob the bank.

Mr. Justice Lavery then turned to statements of Morel, mentioning that when he was about to be sentenced to death, Morel had said that Davis was not present when the bank car was held up. "Morel under sentence of death was a man to the last," added Mr. Lavery.

Mr. Justice Lavery remarked that even a criminal might not be beyond trying to help another man, especially if a younger.

Mr. Lavery said evidence showed that all men who participated in the hold-up were of average height or over. While Davis was very small, being only about five feet.

Mr. Calder said the conspiracy to rob the bank was a conspiracy to rob the bank, and that the bank was a conspiracy to rob the bank.

Re-keeping, farming and market gardening are among the occupations taught to British soldiers.

MISERABLE AND ALWAYS IN PAIN

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Dependable Help to Mothers

Port Greville, N. S.—"I took your medicine for a terrible pain in my side and for weakness and headache. I seemed to blot out, too, and my feet and hands were the worst. I am the mother of four children and I am nursing a baby. The first time I took your medicine, I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before the baby's birth. I can tell you how much it helped me. I cannot praise it too highly for what it has done for me. I took all kinds of medicine with the exception of this. It is the only one that has helped me for any length of time. I can tell you to any one with troubles like mine and you may use my letter for a testimonial."—Mrs. ROBERT McCULLAGH, Port Greville, Nova Scotia.

Before and after childbirth the mother will find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a blessing.

Many, many letters are received giving the same story of experience as is given in this letter. Not only the mother benefited, but these good results pass on to the child.

No harmful drugs are used in the preparation of this medicine—just natural herbs—and it can be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

88 out of every 100 women reported benefit from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in a recent canvass among women users of this medicine.

IS DISGUSTED WITH APATHY

Owner of Vast Timber Resources in Nova Scotia Gives Up Fight

HALIFAX N.S., Oct. 20.—"Disgusted" with what he terms the apathy or indifference and inaction in Canada towards the cause of forest conservation, Frank J. D. Rannum, owner of vast timber resources in Nova Scotia, announces in a letter appearing in today's Halifax Herald that he has decided to resign all his holdings in the dominion and join the ranks of the American citizen.

Mr. Rannum states that since his retirement from active business three years ago he has spent "much of his time and a considerable fortune" in an endeavor to arouse the Canadian people to a realization of the need for forest conservation. But he has found "unremitting stalling" by his own people in the political and economic spheres. "I have been beyond my own private interests and to whom the public welfare is a job, and I have been addressed himself to an impossible task. And because he believes that nothing will compensate for living in a country in which he has entirely lost faith of its future," he has decided to remove elsewhere.

HE BELIEVES IN ADVERTISING

Fred V. Seibert in Edmonton After Trip Through British Columbia

Fred V. Seibert, D.L.S. of the Department of the Interior has reached the city from British Columbia where he has been studying various questions on behalf of his department. While in that province he investigated the tourist traffic among many other things and in consequence avers that he is a pronounced advocate of the statement that "it pays to advertise."

Advertisements and done wonders in inducing a flow of tourists to some portions of British Columbia, he said, while on the other hand various scenic resorts which did not get the word which they possessed remained in a backward, unhectic and un-sung.

Mr. Seibert leaves for Waterbury this morning, will return to Edmonton and then proceed to Ottawa.

MUNICIPALITIES TO MEET IN EDMONTON

The annual convention of the Union of Alberta Municipalities will meet at Edmonton on November 2 and 3 and 4 in the afternoon. The place of meeting has not yet been decided but it is probable that the council chamber at the city hall will be selected.

A circular letter has been sent to the officials throughout the province by J. M. Miller, secretary-treasurer of the Union. Each municipality is invited to have a delegate attend and it is hoped that all parts of the province need representation. Councils were requested to prepare resolutions which they propose to place before the convention. J. M. Miller, of Vegreville, has also announced that the Association of Municipal secretaries-treasurers will also meet in Edmonton on the same dates.

MONEY LEAGUE HEARS ABLE ADDRESS

P. H. Russell addressed the local branch of the Alberta Monetary League at the Laurier Hotel, Tuesday, for his subject "The New Age of Money."

He ably defended the Ford-Erdson program of having the money of the nation on her productive value. He contended that it was an absurdity for the nation to charge interest on the money to foster internal revenue-generating public works, and claimed that the country would never get anywhere until the present sound system is abolished.

Many questions were asked after the address and vice-president E. O. Poirer read a paper on the "Inflation of Money."

The next meeting of the league will be held at the house of secretary Russell at 12:15 from Road North, Edmonton at 2:30 P.M. Sunday, October 27.
